PEOPLE v. DOWL (LEWIS MARCUS)

Supplemental briefing ordered

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 8.520(e), the parties are requested to serve and file supplemental briefs addressing the following issues:

1. Whether petitioner's failure to object at trial to Officer Williamson's testimony precludes him from asserting on appeal that, because Officer Williamson was not qualified to opine as to the purpose of petitioner's marijuana possession, his testimony does not constitute substantial evidence to support the verdict.
2. Whether the record, including the preliminary hearing transcript, shows that the trial court did not abuse its discretion in permitting respondent's expert to opine at trial that defendant possessed marijuana for purpose of sales.

Petitioner must serve and file his supplemental brief by August 10, 2012. Respondent must serve and file a supplemental answer brief within 30 days after petitioner files his supplemental brief. Petitioner may serve and file a response brief within 20 days after respondent files its answer brief.
